Confession of Faith The Larger Catechism 84-86 p. 949

Pastor: Shall all men die?

People: Death being threatened as the wages of sin, it is appointed unto all men once to die; for that all have sinned.

Pastor: Death being the wages of sin, why are not the righteous delivered from death, seeing all their sins are forgiven in Christ?

People: The righteous shall be delivered from death itself at the last day, and even in death are delivered from the sting and curse of it; so that, although they die, yet it is out of God's love, to free them perfectly from sin and misery, and to make them capable of further communion with Christ in glory, which they then enter upon.

Pastor: What is the communion in glory with Christ which the members of the invisible church enjoy immediately after death?

People: The communion in glory with Christ which the members of the invisible church enjoy immediately after death, is, in that their souls are then made perfect in holiness, and received into the highest heavens, where they behold the face of God in light and glory, waiting for the full redemption of their bodies, which even in death continue united to Christ, and rest in their graves as in their beds, till at the last day they be again united to their souls. Whereas the souls of the wicked are at their death cast into hell, where they remain in torments and utter darkness, and their bodies kept in their graves, as in their prisons, till the resurrection and judgment of the great day.
